Responsibility for content

All the content in my Internet presence has been created with the greatest care and in good faith. I am, however, unable to undertake any guarantee that the information is correct, complete and up-to-date. Under Section 7 (1) of the Telemedia Act (TMG), I am responsible under general laws as a service provider for my own content on these pages. Under Sections 8 to 10 of the Telecommunications Act, I am not, however, obliged to monitor information transmitted or stored by third parties or to investigate it for indications of illegal activities. This does not affect my obligations to remove or block the use of information under general laws.

No liability can exist, however, for such content until the point in time at which I become aware of a specific infringement of the law. If and when I become aware of such infringements of the law I will act without undue delay to remove such content.

Limitation of liability for external links

My website includes links to external third-party websites. I have no influence on the content of these directly or indirectly linked websites. This means that I cannot undertake any guarantee that the content of such external links is correct. The providers or operators (authors) of the sites are each responsible for their own content to which the external links are directed. The external links were checked for any legal infringements at the time at which the links were created and were free of illegal content at the time at which the links were created. Continuous monitoring of the content of external links is not possible without specific grounds to suspect an infringement of the law. If I become aware of infringements of the law, I will remove the external links without undue delay.

Copyright

The content and works published on my website are subject to German copyright law. Reproduction, processing, sharing and any kind of exploitation beyond the scope of copyright law requires the prior written permission of the respective author or creator. Downloads and copies from this site are only permitted for private, non-commercial use. If the content on my website has not been created by me, third-party copyright should be respected. Third-party content is identified as such. Should you nonetheless notice any infringement of copyright, please let me know. If I become aware of rights infringements I will remove such content without undue delay.

Data Privacy

Privacy Policy

The operators of these pages take the protection of your personal data very seriously. I treat your personal data in confidence and in accordance with statutory data protection regulations as well as this Privacy Policy.

You can use my site without providing any personal data. If personal data (such as your name, address, email address, telephone number, etc.) are collected on my website, providing them is always voluntary as far as possible. Your data will not be transmitted to any third party without your express permission.

I must point out that data transmission on the Internet (for instance, email communication) can involve gaps in security. It is not possible to protect data completely against third-party access.

Server data

Some data transmitted to me or to my web space provider are collected for technical reasons. These are known as server log files and include

- browser type and version
- the operating system being used
- the website from which you are visiting us (referrer URL)
- the website you are visiting
- date and time of your access
- your Internet Protocol (IP) address

These anonymous data are stored separately from any personal data you may provide, which means that it is not possible to identify or trace them to you or any other specific person. They are evaluated for statistical purposes to enable me to optimise my Internet presence and what I offer here.

Typekit Web Fonts

On my website I integrate external fonts by Typekit. Typekit is a service provided by Adobe. These Web Fonts are integrated using a server call to Adobe (in the USA). To the best of our knowledge, at least the IP address of the browser on the end device of the visitor to our website is stored by Adobe.

For more information you can read the Typekit privacy policy at:

www.adobe.com/privacy/typekit.html

Right to information, revocation and erasure

Under the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG) you may contact me free of charge if you have any questions about the collection, processing or use of your personal data or about rectifying, blocking or erasing them or revoking any consent you may have provided. I would point out that you have the right to have any incorrect data about you rectified or to have your personal data erased, as long as this is not prevented by any statutory duty to store them for a certain period.
